pecial to the World. London, September 20. The Prussians sustained a very severe check yesterday, in their third attempt to cut the line of the Orleans Railroad. Afer their repulses at Juvisy and before the fort of Ivry, they yesterday undertook to force a passage and to secure control of the line. They were met in their ad-vance from Corbell, upon the main trunk of the Orleans line, at the hamlet of Es sonne, a village commanded by low hills and buried in the woods, by the French. A Prussian column of thirty thousand men was encountered by a French force of about equal numbers posted in a most advantages position and with formidable artillery. The engagement was extreme-ly severe and lasted nearly six hours. A fresh column of nearly twenty thousand Prussians came up after the battle had gone on three hours and attempted, by a flank movement, to enter the woods. The slaughter here was tearful. Masked batteries of French mitrailleuse kept up so terrible a fire that the cavalry and infantry of the Prussians were decima ted and repulsed along the whole line pursued by the French, who cut off their retreat upon Corbell and the Essonne, and drove them down the main line of Orleans road more than three miles through Savigny and Epinay Sur Orge, and back about a mile and a half upon the village of Montigerry, where a fierce stand was made in the Burgundian Cemetery.
